Dear Dr. Gonzalez:

At the time of my recent visit to Santiago, Chile, the Committee on Fellowships and Graduate Medical Education of the University of Chile Faculty of Medicine presented to me a young physician, Dr. Manuel Donoso Concha, as a candidate for a fellowship in neurosurgery. The members of the committee stated that it was their understanding that he was to become the professor and head of the Department of Neurosurgery of the Faculty of Medicine of the University of Concepción and the Regional Hospital.

I was very favorably impressed with Dr. Donoso, and he meets the qualifications for a Foundation fellowship. However, I question whether he needs to come to the United States. He has been working on the service of Dr. Alfonso Asenjo during the past five years, and it is my feeling that he should already be adequately trained.

I shall be grateful if you will inform me whether Dr. Donoso is to be associated with the University of Concepción Faculty of Medicine and whether in your opinion he needs further training in the United States.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,

Benjamin G. Horning
